Agape

June Gardner advises that we need more agape for the April and May Walks. All contributions are appreciated!

Walk Expense

The Central Texas Emmaus Board has been investigating possible sites within the Temple Region at which future Walks might be conducted. There are at least two viable possibilities from a logistical and facility perspective. However, both locations have a cost which significantly exceeds the income produced by the current $175 fee for Walk participation. In an effort to conduct future Walks within the region without negative financial impact to the Conference the Board wants input from the Fourth Day Groups and individuals in the Temple Region about the possibility of covering these higher costs with an increased fee for Walks held in the region. Please disseminate this information and discuss the following proposal at your Fourth Day Group Gatherings. Return information on your discussion and agreement or disagreement with the proposal to Rich Thompson for the Board's information.

"Would Pilgrims, sponsors, and team members be willing to pay an additional $75 (total Walk fee of $250) in order to have Walks conducted in either the Round Rock or Burnet area in order to have the Walk sites closer to home?"

Pray for an Australian Emmaus Walk

Our names are Jill and Annika Peters and we are a part of the Darling Downs Emmaus Community in Queensland, Australia. We are writing to ask if you could please help us to cover our next Men's and Women's Emmaus Walks with prayer. These Walks will be held on:

15-18th April 2010 (Men's Walk) and 22-25 April 2010 (Women's Walk)

The Prayer Vigils commence at 5pm on the Thursday evenings, and finish at 6pm on the Sunday evenings. It would be wonderful if your community could help us to cover the Walks in prayer, as prayer is such a vital part of these weekends. In particular, we are looking for assistance in covering the hours between 11pm-4am Aus. time (11pm Aus. time is 8 am our time).
