

The Rooster's Crow

The Georgetown Texas Emmaus Newsletter

February 2011

Greetings!

At the last gathering, Sena Leese brought us the 4th Day message in the form of greetings from the CTC Emmaus board. The talk reflected on her pilgrim walk and how it impacted her life. This impact was summarized in the short phrase: "Here I am Lord, send me!"

Sena reminded us of the commitment we each made on our Pilgrim walks—to be active in serving our local churches, reunion groups and monthly Emmaus gatherings.

Take a moment and reflect on your commitment. Where are you sharing your time and talents in the church? When was the last time you gave a 4th day talk? When is the last time you sponsored a pilgrim or served on a Walk team?

Sena reminded us, yet again, that sponsorship or team membership may not be for all of us, but that it takes a 4th Day Gathering to support those who are called to sponsor or participate on a team. Prayer warriors are needed and agape must be prepared. But most of all, pilgrims are needed.

One walk has already been cancelled due to a lack of pilgrims.

Men's Walk 365 is the next up that hasn't met it's required minimum, so please reach out to those around you who would benefit from a Walk. By the way, a bus is being scheduled to take people to the 365 candlelight on March 12— come join us!

Christ is counting on you!

Agape... Agape... Agape...

Agape is an important part to every Walk. Yet sometimes, getting our gifts to the proper destination in time, can be a challenge.

Our community has that solved through a position known as the Agape Coordinator, and Anne Castle is our community's Agape Coordinator.

If you have any Agape prepared, she will be happy to ensure it's delivery to the proper people.

Please contact her at: anncastle@texasfixtures.com or 512-863-4843—leave a message and Anne will return your call.
