

The Rooster's Crow

The Georgetown Texas Emmaus Newsletter

February 2012

Welcome from our new Lay Director!

Happy Valentine's Day & remember the LOVE.

Some twenty years ago I was asked to write a letter for my dear childhood friend going on an Emmaus Walk, so I did. I wrote one for just about everyone in her family and that was my introduction to the Emmaus Walk. She kept asking me to go and finally in 2000, my daughter Crystal who went in 1999, sponsored me with my friend.

It was an amazing weekend!!

Love, mercy, grace and food. My daughter kept repeatedly telling me don't anticipate, but I kept wondering about getting letters. I had written a lot and I surely wanted them to appear. Well they finally did - an experience of overwhelming love from some unexpected sources.

This same friend who encouraged me to go on an Emmaus Walk took up playing the flute she hadn't played since seventh grade, because I wanted someone to play the flute when I was Lay Director of a walk in the Rio Grande Conference and couldn't find anyone who could come that weekend. That's love, but it doesn't compare to the love of our Lord for us and the least we can do is to keep the love going.

Share love and invite someone to go on an Emmaus walk, experience the love - work a walk, and remember the love and invite someone who has missed gatherings to come share the love with all of us.

I'm looking forward to walking in love with you this year being the hands and feet of Christ sharing the love.

De Colores!
Elaine Jackson
