“This is the body of Christ....”

Over the past few years as I have placed a piece of bread in the hands of those coming for communion, I have often added a blessing. “As you receive, may God’s grace fill your heart” or “May the Spirit give you strength for your days” or “Receive with this the love of Christ” or words like that. Yes, it slows the parade a bit—but it reminds us who we come together as we do.

When we break bread and share the cup, we proclaim Jesus’ presence—but not just for a moment; rather on a continual basis. This moment reaches ahead of us as God prepares a way for us, as the love that calls us also walks with us through the weeks and months and years.

We do this “in remembrance”, knowing that God will “never forget.” What a joy that is!!

CO-LAY DIRECTORS' COMMENTS

Special thanks to Ron Trimmer for sharing the “realness” of the Walk to Emmaus during his Fourth Day Talk in June. We loved the quote, “When folks feel safe to be vulnerable, God can really work in their life.”

We had a wonderful Father’s Day Gathering at FUMC last month. As always, the music was wonderful. It is truly a blessing to have such a talented and generous music team. And special thank you to John for leading us in our worship with Rev. Ann.

As the Fourth of July approaches, we hope and pray that you have a safe holiday, and thank God for our freedom, remembering those that have fought and continue to fight for what it truly means to be an American. God bless each of you and your families.

God bless America!!!!
