The Call of the Fisherman

Mark 1:17 And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people."

I am not a fisherman. My dad could best attest to that from a best-laid plan for a family vacation to Lake City, Colorado. Dad had made reservations to stay in a cabin and fish trout streams as an ideal summer adventure. He was so pleased with his plan, but his teenage daughter was totally bored.

After one day of retrieving lost hooks, "shushing" squeals from wiggly, stinky bait, and listening to constant complaints about cold water, wet clothes and lack of snacks...you get the picture...Dad let me stay at the cabin with Mom and eventually venture into the village in search of anything that kept me entertained, so he could peacefully fish.

As the years have rolled on, God has given me a different perspective on fishing. Serving on the CTC Emmaus board, I have often received inquiries about Walks and prospective pilgrims. A call came from the Emmaus administrator that an Iowa pastor had a sister-in-law in Georgetown interested in participating in a Walk. She needed a sponsor. A phone call, visits, and completed paperwork had Judy Cox ready to attend Walk 371 last September with a sponsor, me. Not only did Judy have a wonder-filled Walk experience, she has become an active member in our 4th Day Gatherings, Joyful Noise Reunion, and she recently became a member of FUMC from a sister denomination.

God showed me that if I would hold that fishing pole, He would bait it and bring in the beautiful opportunity to share His love with another. Have you felt a tug on your line to sponsor a pilgrim? Answer the call!
