

The Rooster's Crow

June 2014

With a new dog in our house we are learning again the value of “being the pack leader”. Demonstrating calm and assertive energy is supposed to let our pet know that we are in charge and all is OK.

And it is not just with dogs. Our neighbor has a white wing dove with a nest in a hanging flower basket. The wife can go past without troubling the bird but it was skittish about the husband at first.

How does a bird sense the “good guys”? The same couple can sit in their backyard near their water feature and the birds ignore them. When visitors come the birds are flustered. What makes the difference?

When we read of Jesus' activities do we detect that calm and assertive energy? Or are we so wrapped up in our own lives and issues that we miss the energy and therefore miss the assurance. God is in charge if we let Him be. Trust and Obey.

De Colores,

Bill Marsh

CO-LAY DIRECTORS' COMMENTS

“For where two or three gather together as my followers, I am there among them.” Matthew 18:20 (New Living Translation)

We had a great Gathering in May. We met at St. John UMC. Linda Guznowski had sent wonderful decorations, and Peggy and Wayne Blair used them to make our Gathering a festive occasion. Special thank you to Linda, Peggy and Wayne!

In the absence of a Fourth Day speaker we turned to table discussions, each one at the tables sharing their Closest to Christ moment. Tables were busy talking and sharing and you could feel the presence of Christ in our midst. It was truly a “closest to Christ” moment. The song, “Surely the Presence of the Lord is in our Midst”, was such an appropriate song for our Gathering. Thank you, Janet!

Reverend Ron Trimmer is our Fourth Day speaker for our June Gathering on June 15, Father’s Day. Plan to come, hear Ron, and celebrate all fathers!

Fourth Day speakers are needed for August, September, and October. If you have not done a Fourth Day talk, think about volunteering! Here are the basics: It should be between five to ten minutes long where you share your experience on your Walk (unless it was a very long time ago and you cannot remember), and what you have done with it. You should also provide a scripture with your Fourth Day talk. Remember passing the cross around at Closing on your Walk and how you shared the same thing? It is wonderful to hear different experiences and sharing of what everyone has done since their Walk to Emmaus. So, please consider sharing with our wonderful Georgetown Emmaus Community! We look forward to seeing you on Father’s Day at First United Methodist at 5:30, and for fellowship afterwards at our potluck supper!
