

The Rooster's Crow

The Georgetown Texas Emmaus Newsletter

March 2011

Greetings from Our Lay Director!

We miss you!

What special meaning these few words have each of us in our relationships with others. These are strong words that often come from the heart and mean just what they say, but also, can mean are you missing us. Each of us had an experience on our walk that can only be duplicated in fellowship with others in the positive and acknowledged act of praising our Lord and savior.

Won't you join us for a Gathering now and again to give praise? Bring positive praise to God and you will receive a blessing.

Remember, it's not about you.

De Colores!

Roger France

Lay Director

Also, please invite your pilgrims to attend the 4th Day gatherings—3rd Sundays of each month at 5:30pm (see page 4 for dates and locations).

Agape... Agape... Agape...

Agape is an important part to every Walk. Yet sometimes, getting our gifts to the proper destination in time, can be a challenge.

Our community has that solved through a position known as the Agape Coordinator, and Anne Castle is our community's Agape Coordinator.

If you have any Agape prepared, she will be happy to ensure it's delivery to the proper people.

Please contact her at: anncastle@texasfixtures.com or 512-863-4843—leave a message and Anne will return your call.
