

GEORGETOWN EMMAUS COMMUNITY GATHERING

SUNDAY, May 21, 5:30 p.m.

St. Johns United Methodist Church

311 E. University

Fourth Day Speaker: Pat Koym

Join us for worship followed by fellowship and a POTLUCK SUPPER!

If you couldn't make our Palm Sunday Lenten Service last month, you really missed out on something truly powerful! Of course, our music team did a wonderful job with the music. And then, WOW! We had so many soloists: John Clifford, Roger France, Amy Keck, Bob McFarland, and Ronan Shackelford! Nancy Marsh led us in singing "Give me Jesus." Special readers were one of our new Chrysalis butterflies, Makaylee, as well as Carolyn Henry and Pat Koym. Rev. John Clifford and Rev. Dr. Ann Hagman, our Spiritual Director, led us in two different reflections. John spoke of the three men at the cross: Joseph of Arimathea, Nicodemus, and Zaccheus. Ann spoke of the three women at the cross: Mary, mother of Jesus, Mary Magdalen, and Mary or Martha. Our potluck, also, was abundant!!! Thank you to all who participated to make it such a special and meaningful service!!!

From our Lay Director, Crystal Jackson: Spring has sprung. This month can get pretty busy with graduations, school getting out, Mother's Day, and getting ready to go on vacations. While we enjoy all those activities and celebrations, let's keep our focus on our relationship with Christ. I went camping this past week with the National United Methodist Campers in Bandera, Texas, and it was our national rally. There were people from states in the central U.S. to the northeast. We are His masterpiece. When we tell God that we are not fabulous, God says that's because I'm not through with you yet!!! How awesome to know that we are His masterpiece! Let's focus on God's work and thank Him in our quiet time. Emmaus Gathering is May 21st at 5:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall at St. John's UMC with worship followed by a potluck and fellowship. I look forward to seeing all of ya'll there! DeColores! Crystal Jackson
