From our Spiritual Director, Rev. Dr. Ann Hagmann: Sometimes we are faced with making decisions of faith. In 2015, when I discerned that it was time for me to retire from full time work, there were a number of variables that came together to create this awareness. One of them came from out of the blue...a painting I inherited that had value. Three years later, suddenly the time seemed to appear to sell it. The auction was even on the original owner's, my beloved Grandmother, 56th anniversary of her death. But when it happened, nothing happened. As with over half of the inventory of paintings, it did not sell. I therefore am faced with what to make of it all. I have decided the prudent thing is to just continue to trust God about it and leave everything else behind. No questions or doubts, just faith living on. I hope if you are facing a difficult acceptance, that you simply trust it to God, leave the doubts, worries, and concerns to Him and move on with life. May the power of faith be alive in our lives today. Amen! DeColores! Ann Hagmann
