A Holiday Prayer from Terry France

Dear Lord,

As we enter this holiday season, help us to stay ever mindful of and thankful for Your enormous blessings on us. We have roofs over our heads, food to eat, churches of our choice to attend, friends to worship with and Your ever present grace.

We all have the ability and means to help others in some way. Be with us Lord, and help us to see where we are needed and to follow through with aid, be it a call, a meal, finances, or prayer.

We ask also Lord, that You help us to help ourselves by following our Emmaus promises to gather as fourth dayers in Your name so we can provide leadership in Your churches.

Help us to be a blessing and a spark for You as we gather to thank you.

In Jesus Christ's name,

Amen
